FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dennis Knautz, past President and CEO of Acme Brick Company was Inducted into the Texas Masonry Hall of Fame March 20, 2025.

Fort Worth, TX – Dennis Knautz and three other industry leaders were inducted into the Hall of Fame in a presentation at the historic Alamo on Thursday, March 20.

The Texas Masonry Hall of Fame is more than just an accolade—it is a lasting tribute to the visionaries who have elevated the masonry construction industry across the Lone Star State. By celebrating their expertise, innovation, and leadership, the Hall of Fame preserves their legacy and inspires future generations to uphold and continue the highest standards of the masonry industry.

Dennis retired as Acme’s President and CEO on April 1, 2023 after more than 40 years of service to the company. Under his leadership over that four-decade span Acme led the nation in brick shipments for many years, delivering more than 32 billion brick to residential and commercial customers over that time. He also expanded Acme’s community engagement with many organizations including the Texas Association of Business, the North Texas Commission, and North Texas LEAD (Leaders and Executives Advocating Diversity).

In 2016, he accepted, on Acme's behalf, the Fort Worth Chamber's "Spirit of Enterprise" award. Nationally, he was inducted into the Brickman's Hall of Fame in 2019, and has also played a vital role in the Brick Industry Association, twice serving as its Chairman, and being recognized with its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2020.

Dennis is Acme Brick Company's 11th President in the company's 133-year history and one of the its longest serving Presidents.

Acme Brick Company, founded in 1891, sells many quality building material and design products for the home and commercial projects through over 50 Acme Brick Tile & Stone public showrooms across 13 states in the Southwest and Southeast. Acme is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. For more information visit brick.com.
